

Science, Technology and Public Policy: Professional Workshop Series 2019

Join our graduate classes in this advanced workshop series where learning can be recognised for future graduate studies with us.

Workshop Schedule, Semester 1, 2019

All workshops are held on Friday.

Workshops are run fortnightly from 9:30am-4:30pm

22 March	$1195	Compulsory Workshop: An Introduction to Science, Technology and Public Policy: Cross-cutting Issues.
	$1195	Digital download after 22 March.
29 March	$1195	Case study 1: Transformation Potential of Applied Augmented Intelligence to Government-to-Citizen Service Delivery
5 April	$1195	Case Study 2: Data Analytics Case Study on Social Trust, Bias and Ethical Implications of Transforming to an Intelligently Automated Delivery Organisation
12 April	$1195	Case Study 3: Environmental Biosecurity In Australia
24 May	$1195	Case Study 4: Australian Space Agency - A Case study of Priority-Setting in R&D and Technology Policy
31 May	$600	Synthesis Study 1: Synthesis of all 4 Case Studies (half day)

A 20% discount applies for group bookings of 3 or more participants from the same organisation.

**Please note that there are 3 components to each course:

1. Pre Course Submission: A 500-word reflection on the readings based on participants experience, including identification of key questions to be posed to case study experts,
2. Attendance and Participation in the Workshop
3. Post Course Submission: A 500-word policy brief on the workshop